Online Photo Exhibition of the IMID 2021

The IMID 2021 will be held at COEX, Seoul, Korea from August 25 to 27, 2021 in a hybrid format consisting of both onsite and online presentations. On behalf of the IMID 2021 Organizing Committee, we would like to welcome you to the Online Photo Exhibition.

As is well known, the IMID is the one of the largest meeting in the field of information display. In every year, more than 2,000 display experts from all around the world had attended the IMID conference and the related IMID Special Exhibition.

This year's exhibition features three themes including the Enterprise Exhibition, SF-Zone (Show me the Future Zone), and "i'M in Display" online photo exhibition.

Especially, "i'M in Display" Online Photo Exhibition is particularly meaningful as it is the first time via online conference exhibition. In this online photo exhibition, we hope to share the amazing experience in the moment of a new discovery in the field of information display with participants anytime, anywhere. This will allow us to get the technical knowledge as well as to see the beauty as a work of art.

"i'M in Display" is open to anyone who participates in IMID 2021. We are encouraging participation from universities, research institutes and companies related the information display fields. After the online photo exhibition, we will select the best photo and award a prize. Don't miss this exciting chance!

If you want to participate in our online photo exhibition, please fill out the application submission form and submit it through Google form.
